Perpetual Asset Management has been recognised as a finalist in the 2025 Morningstar Australia Awards.

The team has been nominated for three categories:

- Fund Manager of the Year (Overall)
- Fund Manager of the Year (Fixed Interest) – Perpetual Diversified Income
- Fund Manager of the Year (Sustainable Investing) – Perpetual ESG Credit Income

Now in its 25th year, the awards recognise and celebrate the best of the Australian fund management profession and are selected by Morningstar's Manager Research analysts.

"Despite the turbulent past year, our nominated fund managers demonstrated an ability to deliver quality, high-performing investments and have stood above peers with exceptional returns over the longer term," said Matt Olsen, Morningstar Australasia's Director, Manager Research.

Winners will be announced on 20 February following a thorough analysis of research from Morningstar's research team, as well as risk-adjusted medium to long-term performance track records, and performance in the 2024 calendar year.
